LIFE IS AN ADVENTURE OR NOTHING AT ALL!
Capt Keith Plaskett

CAPTAIN KEITH PLASKETT FOLDER

CAPTAIN KEITH "CAPPY" PLASKETT, a real life Indiana Jones. The handsome Renaissance man is the star of the runaway hit Discovery Channel reality series, Treasure Quest: Snake Island. The place is crawling with death, two snakes per square meter. Plaskett defied death seeking a legendary pirate treasure of $300 million in Incan Gold.

Our Cuban cigar puffing Captain eluded death in Vietnam despite fighting in four major battles, including the notorious Tet Offensive. Plaskett cleared mines at the foot of the notorious Hamburger Hill. He kicked major ass in "Nam. He later went all in as a Navy Special Ops frogman, paratrooper, and EOD master, capable of dismantling every ordnance known to man. He was a real-life Hurt Locker, having handled over 200 nerve-jangling bomb situations.

The Captain also possesses a veritable treasure trove of incredibly entertaining true adventure stories that will both astonish and delight readers across all demographics as his TV show has similarly captured key ratings demographics. He's staked his claim to relevance in today's pop culture by virtue of the popularity of his reality series, earning wide of interest and recognition. His show airs in 200 countries, produced and promoted by media juggernaut Discovery Channel.

Plaskett was the first EOD Security Officer on the ground in the Iraq conflict. He built Iraqi security forces in Baghdad, and set up forward operating bases in the deadly Sunni Triangle. He was ambushed numerous times, enduring several bloody, deadly engagements. He was the manager notorious contractor Blackwater, which provided security for him. In one year he survived four IED attacks and disarmed five road bombs whilst surrounded by bad guys. He worked protection for presidents Reagan and George H. W. Bush and also established a marine foundation at the University of Peru.

"Cappy has always dreamt of searching for sunken Spanish galleons off of Brazil's coast, but navigating these treacherous waters and the brutal storms that unexpectedly form without warning will test the limits of his sailing skills. Cappy is normally easygoing, but at the helm, it's a different story, where the laws of the sea prevails..." DISCOVERY CHANNEL

Originally from Oklahoma, KEITH PLASKETT joined the Military right out of high school, at age 18-19 he was serving in Vietnam, he lived through 4 major battles including the 1968 Tet Offensive in the northern part of South Vietnam which was waged by the North Vietnamese regular Army (NVA) several years later, Keith becoming an esteemed Navy Special Warfare, EOD,

"Frogman." During his time serving his country, he participated in many operations, and served on missions to protect several U.S. Presidents. Cappy is a USCG Licensed Sea Master (Captain) operating vessels in the Gulf of Mexico, Atlantic, Pacific, Caribbean, and West Indies oceans, with many sea stories to tell. Recently, Keith taught classes on terrorism and bomb dismantling as part of the US Governments Anti-terrorism Program.

Besides his time in the navy, Captain Keith also has a great deal of experience with underwater excavations and archeology. He is an Undersea Explorer, and currently lives and works in Peru, finding and documenting underwater shipwrecks and diving. As President of the Peruvians nonprofit association Mares Del Sur, he is also working with Peruvian universities to develop an underwater archeology program to help preserve their archaeological heritage. from 2001 to 2004, completed the first major revision of the GUIDE FOR SCIENTIFIC DIVING in April 2001 in conjunction with the inception of the UWF Scientific Diving Program. In February 2003, Plaskett again revised the document to reflect lessons learned from two years of program operations. In June of 2005, acting DSO Jason Raupp and acting Assistant DSO Paul Sjordal revised and updated the guide, including the editing and addition of several of the appendices after consultation with the UWF Legal Department.

When not searching for treasure, Keith spending time in the Amazon jungle, exploring, for lost ancient Inca cities, and working with under privileged students at the National University in Peru. For Cappy, finding this treasure would make a world of financial difference to these kids, and would secure a bright future for them. Back on land, Captain Keith has three grown daughters he raised as a single parent. They, his seven grandchildren, and two great granddaughters are the apples of his eye. He plans on spoiling them all with his share of the Treasure of the Trinity. DISCOVERY CHANNEL
